FOREWORD

District Industrial Potential Survey Report of District Lalitpur is a key report which not only contains current industrial scenario of the district but also other useful information about the district. This report provides valuable inputs which may be useful for existing & prospective entrepreneurs of the District.

It is the only readily available source of information which provides the latest data on infrastructure, banking and industry of the district. It also provides information on potentials areas in manufacturing and service sector of the district.

I sincerely hope that District Industrial Potential Survey Report of District Lalitpur will facilitate easier dissemination of information about the district to policy makers and also to the professionals working in the MSME sector.

I appreciate the efforts made by Shri G.Velladurai, Dy. Director (LF) and Shri KP Sheel, Inv. (LF) in preparing the District Industrial Potential Survey Report of Lalitpur District.

Brief Industrial Profile of Lalitpur District

1. General Characteristics of the District

Lalitpur District is one of the districts of Uttar Pradesh state of India. Lalitpur District is a part of Jhansi Division. Lalitpur is the main town and administrative headquarters. The geographical area of the district is 5039 Sq.kms. and has a population of 1,222,000 as per the census 2011.

Lalitpur District was formerly part of the state of Chanderi, founded in the 17th century by a Bundela Rajput who was descended from Rudra Pratap of Orchha. Chanderi, along with most of Bundelkhand, came under Maratha hegemony in the 18th century. Daulat Rao Sindhia of neighboring Gwalior annexed Chanderi state in 1811. In 1844, the former state of Chanderi was ceded to the British, and became the Chanderi District of British India, with Lalitpur town as the district headquarters. The British lost the district in the Indian Rebellion of 1857, and it was not reconquered until late 1858. In 1861, the portion of the district west of the Betwa, including Chanderi, was returned to Gwalior, and the remainder was renamed Lalitpur District. Lalitpur District was made part of Jhansi District from 1891 to 1974.

Lalitpur finally carved out as a district in the year 1974 which is not only the heartland but also heart-shaped district of Bundelkhand Region. It is joined to Jhansi District of Uttar Pradesh by a narrow corridor to the northeast, but is otherwise almost completely surrounded by Madhya Pradesh state, to the east lies Tikamgarh District, to the south Sagar District, and to the west Ashoknagar and Shivpuri districts.

Lalitpur, Jalaun, and Jhansi districts form Jhansi Division. Jhansi Division is one of 17 divisions of Uttar Pradesh state in northern India. The city of Jhansi is the administrative center of the Jhansi division. The division is part of the historic Bundelkhand region, which includes a portion of southern Uttar Pradesh and extends into neighbouring Madhya Pradesh state. Jhansi is one of oldest division of Indian Railways.

1.1 Location & Geographical Area.

Lalitpur District is one of the districts of Uttar Pradesh state of India. Lalitpur district is a part of Jhansi Division. Lalitpur is the main town and administrative headquarters. The district occupies an area of 5,039 km<sup>2</sup>.

Lalitpur District is a part of Jhansi Division and was carved out as a district in the year 1974. It is connected to Jhansi District by a narrow corridor to the northeast, and is otherwise almost surrounded by Madhya Pradesh state, an example of a salient.

Lalitpur district lies between latitude 24°11' and 25°14' (north) and longitude 78°10' and 79°0' (east) and is bounded by district Jhansi in the north, districts Sagar and Tikamgarh of Madhya Pradesh state in the east and Ashoknagar district of Madhya Pradesh separated by river Betwa in the west.

This district has a number of historical and cultural places like Devgarh, Seeronji, Pavagiri, Devamata, Neelkantheshwar at Pali, Machkund ki Gufa. Lalitpur town has variety of places like many Hindu & Jain temples. Raghunathji (Bada Mandir), Shivalay, Boodhe Babba (Hanumanji), Tuvan Mandir for Hindus & Bada Mandir, Ata Mandir & Kshetrapalji for Jains are famous temples

1.2 Topography

The city is well connected by railways and road transport. Lalitpur Railway falls under main railway line of India. It is well connected by train services to all parts of the country. Daily trains are available to Mumbai, Delhi, Kolkata (Howrah), Chennai, Agra, Jammu Tawi, Bangalore (Bengaluru), Trivendrum, Indore, Ahmedabad, Pune, Jammu, Lucknow, Bhopal, Jabalpur, Kanpur and other major towns. Lalitpur station is a junction now, with trains directly to Khajuraho, Singrauli, Satna & Tikamgarh. India's biggest national highway from Kashmir to Kanyakumari NH-44 passes through Lalitpur, connecting major cities of India. Bus facility to major cities - Delhi, Lucknow, Kanpur, Indore, Bhopal, Saugor, Meerut. Lalitpur district in UP is also known for Uranium deposits.

Being on a rocky plateau, Lalitpur experiences extreme temperatures. Winter begins in October with the retreat of the Southwest Monsoon (Lalitpur does not experience any rainfall from the Northeast Monsoon) and peaks in mid-December. The mercury generally reads about 4 degrees minimum and 21 degrees maximum. Spring arrives by the end of February and is a short-lived phase of transition. Summer begins by April and summer temperatures can peak at 47 degrees in May. The rainy season starts by the third week of June (although this is variable year to year). Monsoon rains gradually weaken in September and the season ends by the last week of September. In the rainy season, the average daily high temperature hovers around 36 degrees Celsius with high humidity. The average rainfall for the city is about 900 mm per year, occurring almost entirely within the three-and-a-half months of the Southwest Monsoon. In summer Lalitpur experiences temperatures as high as 45-47 degrees and in winter the temperatures fall as low as 0-1 degrees (recorded in winter 2011).

3.10 One District One Product Scheme of Uttar Pradesh

State Government has come up with One District One Product Scheme of Uttar Pradesh 2018 which will boost economic development of the state, and also encourage youth in districts to find employment avenues without migrating to bigger cities. With scheme considering only on one product per district these districts will be able to specialize in the manufacturing process of the product which will eventually increase the quality of the products and they will be able to compete on the global scale.

Zari is an even thread traditionally made of fine gold or silver used mostly in traditional garments, especially as brocade in saris etc. It is believed this tradition started during the Mughal era. Today, in most fabrics, Zari has cotton or polyester yarn at its core, wrapped by golden/silver metallic yarn. There are around 400 weavers who are engaged in making Silk Sarees in this district. These elegant Sarees are known all over the world for their transparency, exquisite designs and engraved buti work. These are supplied to be sold in all major cities of the country. As many as 5000 Cotton and Silk Sarees are made here every year.
